Miles of Hoosier Hospitality!

Whether you travel east, west, north or south, just look for I-64 in Southern Indiana - the gateway to great get-aways! Visit Mr. Christmas himself year round or, for summer fun, Holiday World & Splashin' Safari in Santa Claus. See the Falls of the Ohio in Clarksville where Lewis & Clark departed to discover the West. Enjoy the cultures (and foods!) in various Amish communities. Witness a true utopian community as it was and still stands in New Harmony. Take a chance with Lady Luck at any or all of three casinos. Take a hike through Hoosier National Forest or bike ride on a path winding through seven counties. Explore caves in Marengo. Experience the South American rainforest at AMAZONIA! in Evansville.

Relax in quaint towns like Jasper where you will find a world famous German restaurant, The Schnitzelbank; Newburgh, where the Farmer's Market sells herbs and homemade goods; and Ferdinand, home to the Monastery, one of the nation's largest communities of Benedictine women.

For camping, Delaney Park in Salem and Spring Mill in Mitchell are pristine and perfect. For a larger outdoor experience, Patoka Lake & Recreation Area offers 35,000 acres for boating, fishing, swimming, hiking and biking.

History comes alive at Lyles Station in Princeton, site of Indiana's last remaining African American settlement, and in Vincennes, Indiana's oldest city. Pay your respects at the grave of Nancy Hanks Lincoln, mother of Abraham Lincoln, in Lincoln City where Honest Abe spent his formative years.

Museums abound in Southern Indiana - an authentic WWII warship, a new Children's Museum, art, history and culture. Witness an amazing rebirth at French Lick where Al Capone and Franklin Delano Roosevelt sought the soothing powers of the mineral springs in the 1930s. After a $400 million renovation, it is once again attracting national attention.

Southern Indiana - where a river runs through it - the mighty Ohio. She twists and winds her way to form the southern border of Indiana with our neighbor Kentucky. From big city to small burg, we are the heart of Indiana. Plan to visit us soon. Once you do, we think you'll plan to visit again!
